

26 September 2025

UN Human Rights Office update of database of businesses involved in Israeli settlements in occupied West Bank

We welcome the decision of the Office of the UN High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) to remove Alstom from the UN database which identifies companies operating in Israeli settlements.

This decision aligns with our consistent position since December 2023, affirming that Alstom does not engage in any activities within or related to the occupied Palestinian territories.